

JOB OFFER

APPLICATIONS PROJECT MANAGER F/M

Field of activity: Microelectronics equipment
Location: Saint-Jeoire en Faucigny - Haute-Savoie, France
Type of contract: Full-time permanent position, to be filled at the beginning of 2024
Remuneration: Fixed: according to profile + attractive annual variable remuneration

THE POST

Do you like being in contact with prestigious and international clients?

You have a good level of English ?

Do you love working in a collaborative atmosphere?

Are you curious, passionate about the world of high technologies?

Then the position of APPLICATION PROJECT MANAGER F/M is for you!

After a period of internal training on our clean room equipment, you will be integrated into of the sales department.
Your main missions will be as follows:

- Manage the demo and test schedule
- Prepare and develop customer applications on our equipment
- Carry out tests, trials and demonstrations on our equipment with customer components Be the
- preferred contact for customers regarding applications
- Write reports
- Provide technical support to the sales team
- Carry out technological monitoring (literature, conferences, state of the art, etc.)

YOUR PROFILE

You ideally hold a Bac +3 to +5 in materials or physical measurements, coupled with potential experience in a similar position. Knowledge in mechanics will be appreciated, as well as in the fields of "Flip-Chip" or "Packaging" or the world of Semiconductors.

You are perfectly comfortable in English to communicate in writing and orally with our customers. You will be will also occasionally travel abroad and will be in contact with an international clientele.

WHO ARE WE?

For 45 years, we have been developing, in our beautiful mountain region, cutting-edge equipment for assembly of semiconductor components. A world leader, we attract prestigious international clients and major players in the technologies of tomorrow, such as CEA-Leti, MiT, CERN, Google, etc.

We co-construct our business project via SCOP operation, in a pleasant atmosphere and simple, where collaboration is effective and each employee can become a shareholder.

Within a team where everyone brings their added value to the collective, we offer you varied missions and enriching for which we will take the time to support you. In full growth, we we have the opportunity to propose course developments.

IN SHORT, we share: the work, the projects, the technical developments, the wealth produced and the strategy development of our company. Want to know more about SET? Visit our site.

QUESTIONS? WANT TO APPLY? LET'S MEET UP!

Contact Mélissande on 04 50 35 83 92! Or write to mlebrun@set-sas.fr.